NEW AND IMPORTANT WORK.

THE CHURCH HISTORIANS OF ENGLAND,

FROM BEDE TO FOXE.

IT is found, on a careful examination, that a collection of the whole of the materials left by the earlier historians of the English Church—including BEDE, MATTHEW PARIS, and about twenty others, and coming down to FOXE—may be comprised in about the same number of volumes which are occupied by the "Acts and Monuments" of the latter writer. A general Church History on such a scale, and so far entering into details as to interest a reader, is not to be found in our language, the English reader having nothing beyond epitomes and abstracts. Combining the two collections, therefore, there will be presented, in one uniform series, everything that can be known of the Church of England, from Saxon times down to Archbishop Parker and the settlement of the Church on its present basis; and these may be termed respectively—

THE PRE-REFORMATION PERIOD

AND

THE PERIOD OF THE REFORMATION.

It is estimated that each of these two portions will occupy EIGHT large volumes octavo, the volumes extending to about 800 pages each. For convenience, however, it will probably be expedient to issue them in half-volumes of 400 pages, of which three will be given annually: the whole work will be, it is hoped, completed in five or six years. The terms of subscription will be similar to those of the Parker Society—viz., 20s. per annum. But as three volumes of the above work will contain as much matter as four of the Parker Society, it is confidently anticipated that this arrangement will satisfy every reasonable expectation. There may be, however, a possibility of completing more than the specified number of Volumes annually, and which the Subscribers can have immediately on publication, at the same rate—viz., 20s. for every Three Volumes. The first issue of the 32 Vols. will, it is hoped, be given in the Spring, and the entire cost of the work will not, it is anticipated, exceed more than TEN GUINEAS. Subscribers to the late edition of FOXE, who may not wish to re-purchase that work, will be at liberty to subscribe for the Pre-Reformation series only.

The work having been placed in the hands of a highly accomplished and experienced editor, the Rev. Joseph Stevenson, M.A., there is every reason to hope that it will be not only one of the most important records of history that has ever appeared, but the most complete and authentic History of the Church of England extant.

WILLIAM CURRY AND CO. have opened a list for subscribers, and will be glad to send (post free) copies of detailed prospectus to any party on application.
